

A Nativity Pageant

December 19, 2010

Advent 4

The Seekers children, assisted by many adults, starred in a series of photographic tableaux in which the Christ Child was born in a make-shift stable on the back lawn of the church. The production was directed by Brenda, photographed by Keith, and narrated in worship by Elizabeth. Besides each of the children taking multiple roles as members of the Holy Family, shepherds, and Magi, other featured players included Richard as Caesar Augustus, John as Herod, and Emily as the Angel of the Lord.
