

Seekers' Palindrome by Peter Bankson

In our community
The life of Christ,
That sense of Immanent Creation,
Is the vision bringing us
Together in one body.
Seekers,
Looking for the Holy Spirit here –
An inner voice that guides;
Becoming church that celebrates diversity;
An image of the world
United by
A common understanding.
The love of God
Calls forth our gifts and pains,
The brick and mortar of the future.
