

Lectionary

We use the Revised Common Lectionary, a list of Bible readings used by many churches and denominations around the world.

The specific readings, the reflection that begins our worship, and a guiding question for this season are below.

REVISED COMMON LECTIONARY Year B

The full Revised Common Lectionary for Year B, which begins with Advent 2014 and continues through the end of November, 2015, is available on the Vanderbilt Divinity School Library web site. When there is a choice of readings, we generally follow the first set, which are posted here.
