

Liturgies

Our inclusive language liturgies set the structure and theme of Sunday morning worship. All liturgies are written by the Celebration Circle Mission Group.

Feel free to use what is helpful from these liturgies. We only ask that when substantial portions are abstracted or used in a written work, please credit Seekers Church and cite the URL.

2018 Easter: For the Love of God

GATHERING

REFLECTION

The mystics consistently use words like mercy, forgiveness, faithfulness, and healing to describe what they experience as

God. These all imply a God who does not just impose rules, but in fact changes them for us! ... And every time God forgives, God is saying that relationship is more important than God's own rules!

Richard Rohr, "All Things Change and Grow," Feb 26, 2018.

ENTRANCE

REFLECTION

Today's Gospel challenges us to decide if we will judge Jesus as outrageously impossible to follow or if we will ask him to take us with him out onto the unruly sea of gospel living. Are we willing to take on the crazy mind of Christ?

Sr. Mary McGlone, CSJ, Give Us This Day, January 2018, p.

2018 Epiphany: Here I Am

GATHERING

REFLECTION

God is not ashamed of the lowliness of human beings. God chooses people as instruments to perform wonders where one would least expect them. God is near to lowliness. God loves the lost, the neglected, the weak and the broken.

2017 Advent: Comfort, O Comfort My People

GATHERING

REFLECTION

Advent is a season for our imaginations to run wild as we contemplate a God who becomes human. We are given a wider glimpse of God when we allow Advent to be an invitation to dream beyond our comfort zones of what we think can happen in our lives or what God can do.

2017 Jubilee: Treasures of Darkness

GATHERING

REFLECTION

Spring bulbs and summer seeds come to life in the unlit places underground. Costly jewel stones lie embedded in the dark interiors of ordinary rocks. ... The dark depths of the ocean teem with life.
