

Liturgies

Our inclusive language liturgies set the structure and theme of Sunday morning worship. All liturgies are written by the Celebration Circle Mission Group.

Feel free to use what is helpful from these liturgies. We only ask that when substantial portions are abstracted or used in a written work, please credit Seekers Church and cite the URL.

REFLECTION

*Maybe you will not be called
With the coal held to your lips,
The rush of wings of Ambitious angels
Covering you. ...
But maybe you will be called by Fallen mustard seeds and Open-eyed dreams.
Maybe you will be called by The ordinary and the striking,
The places where your heart catches
More than once. ...
Maybe you will know that Your call is no less real Because it comes with Seeds in your hand*

*And the taste of fruit in your mouth,
With a sound so soft
It could have just been the breeze,
But wasn't.*

REFLECTION

Christ climbed down from His bare Tree this year and softly stole away into some anonymous Mary's womb again where in the darkest night of everybody's anonymous soul
He awaits again an unimaginable and impossibly
Immaculate Reconciliation
the very craziest of Second Comings

Lawrence Ferlinghetti, from A Coney Island of the Mind

REFLECTION

Hope is an orientation of the heart... The more unpropitious the situation in which we demonstrate hope, the deeper that hope is... [Without hope] it is impossible to live in dignity and meaning much less find the will for the 'hopeless enterprise' which stands at the beginning of most good things.

Vaclav Havel, Disturbing the Peace, pp. 181-182

In the struggle to become Christ's Body, we have only one weapon and one alone: Love... Love is what first softened your heart and mine. Love brought us into the struggle. Love alone has the power to break hearts open so that we will all lay down our defenses and join in the cosmic movement toward a new heaven, a new earth, in a Holy City whose foundation is Love.

Seized by the Power of a Great Affection: Meditations on the Divine Encounter, p. 41

Darkness deserves gratitude. It is the Alleluia point at which we learn to understand that all growth does not take place in the sunlight.
