

“New Story Leadership” by Paul Costello

June 5, 2016

Third Sunday after Pentecost

Paul Costello is the founder and director of New Story Leadership. He shared some of his own story as well as that of NSL and the remarkable students from Israel and Palestine that it brings together each summer in Washington, DC, for an intensive program of workshops, conferences, seminars, professional work exposure, cultural immersion and team training. Their perspective is Change the World? Change the Story! The full text of Paul's remarks is not available, but more information about NSL can be found on its website: <http://www.newstoryleadership.org/> .
