Everyday Prophets

SILENT REFLECTION

Much as we value prophetic leaders and movements, our challenge in Seekers has been to be prophetic as a group, to be a prophetic community.

That means re-inventing for our times what it means to embody compassion and justice
in our homes, at work, in the community and the whole earth.

Voice 1: In the ties of commitment we find freedom.
 In the husk of the past we find the seeds of the future.

Voice 2: We embrace what is precious,
 the dailiness of life.

Voice 1: We understand that freedom isn't a once-in-a-lifetime
 walk under the Milky Way, feeling the rivers of light, the fields of dark.

Voice 2: What we mourn survives
 in the dawning sky of every new day.
 What we lost returns
 and shines in the night to guide us home.

Leader: What brings us together is the Spirit's presence in our midst, even when community is the last place we want to be.

All: We are here to say yes, God, even when the answer requires more than we believe we have.

PRAYERS

ASSURANCE

Leader: Take heart. We are a community of everyday prophets.
 We can trust in the compassion of God,
 the rock of our faith,
 the spark of our transformation,
 the fountain of our love,
 and the source of our lives in Christ.

BENEDICTION

Leader: Go from this place knowing that you are everyday prophets, engaging the challenges you see without knowing where it will all come out.

Live in what is unresolved;
be patient with the time it takes
for the new to become clear.
God walks with prophets in every age. Amen.
