

Worship in the style of Taize

Sprinkled like living water throughout the calendar and liturgical year Seekers Church celebrates the Divine Mystery in a service in the style of Taize. Our worship this Sunday was such a service filled with the sounds of silence, chanting, prayers of the community, sharing communion and hearing the word of God.